Quorum Auctio habenda est apud Nundinum Sturbrigiense in vico vulgò dicto Cooks-Row. Septemb. 8. 1686.

Per Edvardum Millingtonum Bibliop. Lond.

Catalogues are distributed to all Gentlemen Scholars, &c. From the several Coffee-Houses in Cambridge; and from the above-mentioned Auction-Booth in Cooks-Row.

TO THE READER.

THese ensuing Books were at first designed, and now will be sold, in pursuit of my promise to my Friends, and in prospect of a modest gain to my self. To commend the Catalogue, would be to question the knowledge of the unprejudiced Peruser, and to represent the way of sale as useful to the furtherance of Learning, after so many experiments made by the Incouragement and Approbation of the Learned of this Place, would be to lesson the just veneration I have for their Judgments. The Library of Books of the worthy Person, whose Name is mentioned, were for their number choice and valuable: the additionals sprinkled in every page, will appear to be sufficiently inviting, if the general reception they have had in the World, and their confessed usefulness, may be reckon'd proper Arguments of recommendation amongst the studious part of Mankind.

This Auction will begin on Wednesday the 8th day of September, 1686. at the Auction-Booth in Sturbridge-Fair, in Cookes-Row, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, continuing to Five; and the following dayes from Eight in the Morning to Eleven, and from Two in the Afternoon to Five, till all the Books are sold.

Conditions of SALE.

I. THat he who bids most, is the Buyer: and if any Difference arise, which the Company cannot decide, then the Book, or Books, shall be forthwith exposed to Sale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwise before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking, or leaving them.

III. That the fourth part of the price of the Book or Books bought, be paid by the Buyer at the time of Sale, and that he give us his Name and Degree, and of what College or Hall he belongs to (if a Scholar) and that the remainder of the Money be paid within two dayes at the place of Sale, where the Book or Books shall be ready to be delivered.
